Entry Authorization and Release Form for Image and Video

We wish to participate in the Street-to-Stream Video Contest. We have read the contest rules, agree to the terms and conditions of the rules and agree to comply fully with the letter and the spirit of all contest rules.

We understand that once the Street-to-Stream entry is submitted to Tualatin Basin Partners for Clean Water (the Partners), the entry materials become the property of the Partners. We retain ownership of the copyright in the entry. Each member of the team and his/her parent or legal guardian has signed this Entry Authorization Form giving the Partners and its member agencies the right to use this video and our names and images. We give our permission to the Partners to use the video for advertising and promotional purposes including print and television advertising, brochures, newsletters, websites, social media, annual reports and in displays at various locations throughout the State of Oregon. We warrant that if we have used the works of any third persons in the video that we have secured all releases and licenses required from such persons to allow us to grant these rights to the Partners and have provided accurate copies to the Partners of these releases and licenses as part of the entry materials.

We understand that the Partners have the right to alter student's artwork in any way deemed necessary for use in advertising materials. We agree that all representations of the entry are true and not fictitious. We understand that entries submitted will not be returned.
